

Disclaimer Scooter-Weekend 2011 on the Nürburgring

Statements by contestants and riders on the exclusion of liability

Participants take part in the event at their own risk. They are the ones to accept full civil and criminal liability for any damage caused by themselves or the vehicles they use, unless an exclusion of liability has been agreed upon.

The Scooter-Weekend is not a racing event, and its aim is not to achieve maximum speeds.

Contestants and riders hereby state that in connection with the event mentioned above, they will renounce all claims for damages, be they material or immaterial, and on whatever legal grounds, against

- the owner and operator of the race track Nürburgring GmbH,
- the organiser of the event, Scooter-Weekend GmbH,
- the client, Scooter-Attack GmbH,
- the administrative authorities,
- the race services,
- other persons in connection with organising the event,
- the road construction authorities as well as
- other participants.

However, this disclaimer does not apply in the following cases:

- injury of life, body or health
- deliberate act or negligent breach of duty of one of the persons / companies / authorities mentioned above or of their legal agents or auxiliary persons.

Name, first name:

Street, no.:

Postcode, town:

Country:

Signature:

(For participants under the age of 18, this is to be signed by a parent/guardian!)